SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Message from the Pastor

Peace to all of you!

With this Sunday we are starting Ordinary Time. This liturgical period is one of encountering Jesus in our everyday lives. We accompany Jesus through His public ministry, and we realize that He is really the Savior of the world. The First Reading is from the First Book of Samuel. It offers the account of the call of Samuel. He was serving the Lord living in the Temple. He is called three times to serve the Lord as His prophet. Samuel's attitude is remarkable by which he is open and receptive to God's message. Guided by the encounter with God, he will ask God for a wise and discerning heart to guide his people. We are called to listen to God's call in the events of our daily lives by which He offers us to guide us and to walk with us. Let us be open to God's will for us that is fullness of life. The Second Reading is from the Second Letter of the apostle St. Paul to the Corinthians. It presents a passage in which he proclaims the image of the body as the temple of the Holy Spirit. He teaches that the Church is the Body of Christ in which all members are important united by Christ, the Head. Connected with this argument, he underlines how essential is our physical body in our relationship with Christ. We have been redeemed by Christ's blood and He has purchased us by giving His life. We are called to glorify God with our whole selves even with our bodies. It means that in every aspect of our lives we are called to love, to do God's will, to be holy. The Gospel from St. John, we are presented the call of the first disciples. Jesus calls people to a deep encounter with Him. He asks them to be with Him, to have their lives shape by His love and mercy. The disciples not only listened to the teachings of the Lord, but remained with Him for three years and they were transformed by Him. All of us are encouraged to have a deep relationship with Christ in which we realize how much He is active in our every day lives. We have been raised to think about the Lord and God only once a week when we go to mass. However, we are invited to realize that God is present in our lives every day and in every second of the day. It will fill us with strength and hope to realize that He is with us in anything that we do during the day. Consequently, we will experience much more peace and strength.

Fr. Francisco Fernandez, Your servant and your Pastor

Pope Francis' Homily on the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (January 17, 2021)

The Gospel for the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (cf. Jn 1:35-42) presents the meeting between Jesus and his first disciples. The scene unfolds along the River Jordan the day after Jesus' baptism. It is John the Baptist himself who points out the Messiah to the two of them with these words: "Behold, the Lamb of God!" (v. 36). And those two, trusting the Baptist's testimony, follow Jesus. He realizes this and asks: "What do you seek?", and they ask Him: "Rabbi, where are you staying?" (v. 38).

Jesus does not respond: "I live in Capernaum, or in Nazareth", but says: "Come and see" (v. 39). Not a calling card, but an invitation to an encounter. The two follow him and remain with him that afternoon. It is not difficult to imagine them seated, asking him questions and above all listening to him, feeling their hearts inflamed ever more while the Teacher speaks. They sense the beauty of the words that respond to their greatest hope. And all of a sudden they discover that, as evening was drawing around them, the light that God alone can give was exploding within their hearts. One thing catches our attention: 60 years later, or perhaps more, one of them would write in his Gospel: "it was about four in the afternoon" (cf. Jn 1:39) — he wrote the time. And this is one thing that makes us think: every authentic encounter with Jesus remains alive in memory; it is never forgotten. You forget many encounters, but a true encounter with Jesus remains forever. And many years later, those two even remembered the time. They were unable to forget this encounter that had changed their lives and was so happy and so complete. Then, when they leave from that encounter and return to their brothers, that joy, that light overflows from their hearts like a raging river. One of the two, Andrew, says to his brother, Simon — whom Jesus will call Peter when He meets him — "We have found the Messiah" (v. 41). They left sure that Jesus was the Messiah, certain.

Let us pause for a moment on this experience of the encounter with Christ who calls us to remain with him. Each one of God's calls is an initiative of his love. He is the one who always takes the initiative. He calls you. God calls to life, he calls to faith, and he calls to a particular state in life: "I want you here". God's first call is to life, through which he makes us persons; it is an individual call because God does not make things in series. Then God calls us to faith and to become part of his family as children of God. Lastly, God calls us to a particular state in life: to give of ourselves on the path of matrimony, or that of the priesthood or consecrated life. They are different ways of realizing God's design, the one he has for each of us that is always a design of love. God always calls. And the greatest joy for every believer is to respond to this call, offering one's entire being to the service of God and our brothers and sisters.

Brothers and sisters, before the Lord's call, which can reach us in a thousand ways — through others, happy or sad events — our attitude at times might be rejection. No... "I am afraid"... Rejection because it seems to be in contrast to our aspirations; and even fear because we believe it is too demanding and uncomfortable: "Oh no, I will never be able to do it, better not to, a calmer life is better... God over there, me here". But God's call is always love: we have to try to discover the love behind each call, and it should be responded to only with love. This is the language: the response to a call that comes from love is only love. At the beginning there is an encounter, or rather, there is the encounter with Jesus who speaks to us of his Father, he makes His love known to us. And then the desire to communicate it to the people that we love arises spontaneously in us too: "I met Love", "I met the Messiah", "I met God", "I met Jesus", "I found the meaning of my life". In a word: "I found God".

May the Virgin Mary help us make of our lives a hymn of praise to God in response to his call and in the humble and joyful fulfilment of his will. But let us remember this: there was a moment in each of our lives, in which God made himself present more strongly, with a call. Let us remember that. Let us go back to that moment so that the memory of that moment might always renew that encounter with Jesus for us.

D&P Fall Campaign Stand for the Land: Together, let’s support the communities of Guapinol and San Pedro in Honduras!

Development and Peace — Caritas Canada is responding to the call from our partner ERIC–Radio Progreso to raise awareness of the tragic plight of the communities of Guapinol and the San Pedro sector. We stand with them as they defend their right to water for survival and struggle to obtain:

- Justice
 - Reparations and protection
 - The cancellation of irregularly granted mining permits
 - The restoration of their national park
- “It is urgent to cancel all mining in this area of our park. All the damage caused to our rivers and mountains must be repaired.” — Daniel Márquez, Guapinol defender and former political prisoner
Let’s ask the Honduran government to better protect environmental and human rights defenders and to act for justice. Stand in solidarity. Sign the letter to the Honduran ambassador today or at devp.org/act. Please send to your networks for signing on line.

“Bishop Robert Barron paints a beautiful and mysterious image of what it takes to be a follower of Jesus Christ. He lays out three intriguing paths to holiness:

1. Finding the center
2. Knowing you’re a sinner

3. Realizing your life is not about you

He also shares practical approaches to these three paths and insightful guide.”

Thank you from Society of St. Vincent de Paul
As we enter 2024, we reflect on the continuing generosity of all our donors in the parish and parish schools. Your generosity has enabled us to serve about 666 families and 500 children with approximately 1,332 bags of food and over $40,000 in gift cards to our neighbours in need over the year and Christmas. With food insecurity increasing over 2023, we experienced a rise in requests for help with food by over 60% between September and December compared to the same time in 2022.

Here is a heartfelt note of thanks we received in a Christmas card from a client:

I just want to offer my most sincere thank you! Not just the phone helpline, but to the entire congregation, volunteers, Pastor and every single person who has a part in helping not just me, but my kids too! Your help has gone so far and beyond many times. There were times when I felt alone and I was reminded that time after time, the Lord is with me as is St. Vincent de Paul. God bless you all, in Jesus name, Amen.
